Description of Placement and Population Served:
The Kempe Center is an internationally recognized authority in the treatment, prevention, and education of child abuse and neglect. The agency is committed to providing quality services, research and education. It is an academic institution as well (providing expert training all over the country and internationally). They practice under a multi-disciplinary model. Their sole mission is in service to child welfare. Students will have the opportunity to practice all modalities of treatment, and will gain experience in working with adults and children 6 and under. The agency offers extensive training and supervision and is fully equipped with the necessary technology to provide live supervision. Students will be exposed to training and consultation with the most renowned experts in the field of child welfare and treatment.

The Kempe center works with the most severe social services referrals.

Additional Placement Information:

This site is for interns only. The site requests of their interns that they commit to the agency for 1 year due to the fact they are serving children of severe neglect and abuse.
Regis does not make this a requirement, so interns would be choosing to make this commitment on their own.
