

11/01/2022

Re: GLBA Compliance Privacy Rule (16 CFR 313) and Annual Notice

The FTC has officially stated that any college or university that complies with the Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g) and that is also a financial institution subject to the requirements of GLBA shall be deemed to be in compliance with GLBA's privacy rules if it is in compliance with FERPA.

Regis University is compliant with FERPA and the Office of Records and Registration maintains and publishes the FERPA policy information at <https://www.regis.edu/policies/ferpa>.

The Office of Financial Aid sends an annual email to all students, staff, and faculty that includes notice of the availability of the FERPA policy, along with other pertinent information available for review. See below for a copy of the notice.

Hi Kristine,

Regis University is pleased to provide you with the Consumer Information link, found at the end of this email. The information provided on this website includes safety-related statistics, financial aid and educational data, participation rates and support for athletes, and costs for attending Regis University. We are required by federal law to gather this information and to provide you with an annual notice of its availability. We hope that you find this information useful and valuable.

The following is a list of the available information. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the appropriate department, as listed on the Consumer Information site.

General Institutional Information, including accreditation, disability services, tuition & fees, academic programs & regulations, Federal Educational Rights & Privacy Act, Information Technology policies, transfer credit policies, and location, facility, & faculty information.

Financial Aid Information

Student Characteristics and Outcomes

Graduation and Completion Rates

Participation Rates and Support for Athletic Programs

Health and Safety Issues, including immunization policies, drug & alcohol policies/prevention, and campus security & fire safety policies.

To access detailed information regarding the above topics, visit www.regis.edu/consumerinformation.