

Regis University and
The John J. Sullivan Endowed Chair for Free Enterprise

House of Cards: The Looming Health Care Crisis

Tuesday, November 1, 2005

1:00 pm – 5:30 pm

Convention Center | 700 14th Street | Meeting Room 301 | Denver, CO

Scheduled to Speak:

Fr. Michael J. Sheeran, S.J., President of Regis University

Discussion of the Impact of Rising Health Care Costs

Jack Stack, CEO SRC Holdings

One of the “top ten minds in small business” ~ Fortune Magazine

Best Practices Panel moderated by Linda Irwin, Regis University Affiliate Faculty

What's Working for Retail

Larry Hiers, Director of Human Resources, Cabela's

Managing Health Care

Resources Available/Impact on Manufacturing

Edvard M. Hag, Director Rocky Mountain Trade Adjustment Assistance Center

Developing a Self Sustainable Community, Project Mercy

Noel Cunningham, Owner, Strings Restaurant

The Wellness Perspective

Lee Dukes, Senior Vice President of Wellness Solutions, WinningHabits.com

Dialogue on Legislative Opportunities for Solutions

State Senator Deanna Hanna and

State Representative Bill Berens

Registration $25

Register by October 20, 2005

To register, visit www.applyweb.com/contribute/regisevent/land.html

Visa, MasterCard, Discover and American Express credit cards accepted.

Sullivan Chair Mission: Create a public sphere where businesses, nonprofits, academics, students and citizens can discuss and debate the theories and practices of a free enterprise system. In the classroom and the community, the Sullivan program will ensure the discussion of free enterprise explores value-based solutions, advocates socially conscious business practices and represents the points of view of under served communities.

John J. Sullivan Endowed Chair for Free Enterprise

Regis University | Mail Code K-14

6890 West 52nd Avenue | Suite 230 | Arvada, CO 80002

303-458-4368

