March 8-17, 2012

An international play therapy study institute set in a picturesque 14th century villa on a mountainside in Tuscany. Learn about play therapy from American and Italian mental health professionals. Visit ancient Italian cities on day trips including Florence, Pisa, Assisi, Siena, and Lucca. Meet other graduate students and mental health professionals from throughout the United States and Italy.

Credit Options:

- 3 graduate credits in counseling
- 3 undergraduate credits in human services
- 30 continuing education hours

Cost:

Your roundtrip airfare from your home to Rome, Italy and
$1,995 Program Fee

NOTE: All participants must register for graduate credits, undergraduate credits, or continuing education hours. All lectures and workshops are open to all participants. Non-mental health professionals are welcomed to participate, but there are no discounts for participants who are not mental health professionals.
