Greetings:

It is my pleasure to congratulate the Community College of Aurora (CCA) and the Regis University communities on the launch of their new collaboration that provides CCA film & production students with the opportunity to complete a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree at Regis. With the demand for information ever increasing, the need for skilled professionals to deliver that information has never been greater.

I applaud this effort because it sits at the heart of the P-20 Council, which I convened to better align school curriculums from kindergarten to graduate school. At the end of the day, the purpose is to create a better plan for preparing students for the workforce.

Regis University and CCA, both, have rich and successful histories of producing students that are not only workforce ready, but who willingly seek to positively improve the communities they live in. The kind of thinking around the development of this collaboration is why both institutions continue to be leaders in education.

Congratulations again, and thank you for the contributions you put forth to make Colorado the great state it is.

Sincerely,
