Accounting Code

FASB Accounting Standards Codification

FASB ASC is designed to simplify user access to all U.S. GAAP by presenting the authoritative literature in an organized structure of about 90 topics. It also includes relevant portions of S.E.C. guidance. Browse by topic or search by keyword. Contact the Reference Desk for the log-in and password at 303-458-4031.

Accounting Guides

GAAP Guide

GAAP analyzes accounting principles, applies them to a variety of situations and industries, and cross-references the relevant FASB ASC section. GAAP Library is in the CCH Internet Tax Research database under "Accounting."

Accounting and Auditing Literature

Accounting Trends & Techniques, AICPA Audit and Accounting Guides, and the AICPA Professional Standards are found here. First go to www.cpa2biz.com to create your own log-in and password. Then use the Regis Library link in our Databases list to get to the site and log in. The My Account link leads to the Regis online subscriptions.

Articles

Business Source Complete

BSC indexes many business and accounting journals, as well as Company Profiles, SWOT Analyses, and Industry Profiles. It provides full-text articles from 1,858 academic journals and from 1,712 trade publications and general news magazines. Other publication types include Country Reports, Market Research Reports, and monographs.

Lexis-Nexis Academic

This special database has full-text news sources, federal and state court decisions, company financial dossiers, business and trade news, and one subject area for accounting.

Legal Trac

This is a good source for indexed articles from major law reviews, legal newspapers, and bar association journals.

Academic Search Premier

With a greater focus in the social sciences and humanities, ASP is a good source for articles in areas related to public policy, ethical issues, and societal impacts.

Books and E-books

Lumen Catalog

Search our catalog for books, journals, media, government publications, and electronic titles. It's located on our home page and also within the Subject research guides under the Books tab.

Books 24x7

You can search through 8,000 electronic books within this database. Each title is also cataloged in Lumen with a link to Books 24x7. The database is current and has excellent coverage of business topics.

Prospector Catalog

This research tool is a union catalog of libraries throughout Colorado. Search once, find many. A "Request This Item" link will deliver the specified print book to our library for your use. Note that e-books found in Prospector are specific to individual libraries and their users.

Corporate Financials

Mergent Online

Here in detail are public companies' annual and quarterly balance sheets, income statements, cash flow reports, competitors, officers and directors. Create A Report feature allows you to compare a company against a select group of peers. Businesses are also searchable by industry code.

U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission

<http://www.sec.gov/>

This government web site is the source for all required filings of companies traded on U.S. exchanges. It's updated daily and contains 3 years' financial data in the company's 10-K.

Standard & Poor's NetAdvantage

S&P has several valuable publications: industry surveys, company profiles, annual reports, stock reports, financials, economic news, mutual funds, and a weekly newsletter on the stock market.

Key Business Ratios

This Dun & Bradstreet database provides industry ratios arranged by SIC. Search by number or by keyword in the industry description. Additional sources for industry ratios are in print in the Library's reference collection: RMA Annual Statement Studies and The Almanac of Business and Industrial Financial Ratios.
