THE CAMPBELL COLLABORATION

what helps? what harms? based on what evidence?

Home	Welcome to the New Campbell Website!	Spotlight Event
About C2	The Campbell Collaboration is an independent, international, non-profit organization that aims to help people make well-informed decisions about the effects of interventions in the social, behavioral and educational arenas.
Organization and Governance	The vision of the Campbell Collaboration is to bring about positive social change, and to improve the quality of public and private services across the world, by preparing, maintaining and disseminating systematic reviews of existing social science evidence.	THE EIGHTH ANNUAL CAMPBELL COLLABORATION COLLOQUIUM: MAY 12-14, 2008 VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA
Coordinating Groups	The Campbell Collaboration's substantive priorities include, though are not confined to, education, social welfare, and crime and justice.
Steering Committee	The Campbell Collaboration is a 'user-focused' organisation. The users of the Campbell Collaboration's products include policy makers, service providers (public, private, voluntary), intermediary organisations, people who use public and private services, and citizens.
