

Military Deferment

Who Qualifies: The Military Deferment option is available to active-duty military students in CPS, RHCHP, and Regis College Master of Arts in Education. The Military Deferment option defers your tuition due date 90 days after the start of the course's academic period. Students that have a past due balance on their student account are not eligible.

Charge: There is no cost for this option. Just present proof of active military service at any campus location with this completed form.

Due Date to Submit for Processing: You must submit this form along with proof of active military service on or before the tuition due date. Tuition due dates are always the same as the course's add/drop date. For more information on due dates and schedules, please visit www.regis.edu/studentaccounts > Due Dates.

Late deferments are not accepted.

How to Submit Your Deferment:

By Fax: 303-964-5449.

By Mail: 3333 Regis Blvd. A-8 Denver, CO 80221-1099.

In Person: Deferments are taken at any Regis University location.

Terms & Conditions: The deferred due date is 90 days after the start of the course's academic term. Course fees cannot be deferred. Only U.S. citizens or permanent residents qualify for tuition deferment. If payment is not made on deferred tuition by the due date, a per-course late fee of $75 is assessed. Upon non-payment, Regis University may declare any remaining balance due and payable. If this agreement is referred to a collection agency, I agree to pay collection costs and fees, attorney's fees, court costs, and other related costs to Regis University. I understand the use of this deferment plan creates a financial obligation between the University and me. Official transcripts and diplomas will not be released until tuition is paid in full. I understand that future registration will be restricted if a past due balance exists on my student account.
