How will you be affected by the change to 120 credit hours?
(for current students in traditional undergraduate programs)

START HERE

After Spring 2016, will you have completed at least 120 credits?

- NO
  - Have you declared a major?
    - YES
      - Do you wish to graduate with a degree date PRIOR TO 9/1/16?
        - YES
          - You must complete 128 credits to graduate with a degree date of May 2016 or August 2016.
        - NO
          - You must fulfill new major requirements in addition to the core requirements, and complete 120 credits.
    - NO
      - Do you wish to fall under the new degree plan?
        - YES
          - You must indicate your desire to graduate in December 2016. You have successful fulfilled requirements.
        - NO
          - You must fulfill major and core requirements of the bulletin under which they declare and complete 120 credits.

- YES
  - Did the requirements of your major change with the 2016 - 2017 Bulletin?
    - YES
      - You must fulfill NEW major requirements in addition to the core requirements, and complete 120 credits.
    - NO
      - You must fulfill major and core requirements and complete 120 credits.