Regis PharmD will challenge you to think critically, reflect personally and serve those in need.

Prescription strength Regis PharmD will not cause drowsiness as it is the only program to use an integrated curriculum Team-Based Learning approach.

Some students who took Regis PharmD experienced positive reactions to Regis University’s Rocky Mountain surroundings.

Regis PharmD can help you make positive changes in your career—and the world around you—even while operating a car or heavy machinery.

Nausea, dizziness and feelings of despair associated with other pharmacy programs are not typically experienced with Regis PharmD.

Regis University graduates NAPLEX first time pass rate 92%†

Regis University’s residency match rate EXCEEDS the national average

Contains fewer fees than most PharmD programs

PharmD grads feel less irritable because the national median salary for pharmacists is $121,500* per year

$250K in scholarships each year can help relieve the symptoms of student debt

100s of research publications are causing respect of our faculty to spread nationally

Don’t go generic. Treat your ambition properly. Take Regis PharmD.

Apply now