Cultivate Health Contact Information

Project Management
Sue Scherer oversees the planning, implementation, and tracking of Cultivate Health milestones. Contact Sue to discuss grant or other funding sources or general questions about Cultivate Health.

Sue Scherer, PT, Ph.D.
Project Manager | Cultivate Health
Associate Dean | Rueckert-Hartman College for Health Professions
P 303.964.5252 | E sscherer@regis.edu

Community Engagement
Linnea Bjorkman is responsible for implementation and evaluation of community engagement activities. Contact Linnea to discuss programs, partnerships and other engagement initiatives.

Linnea Bjorkman
Healthy Living Coordinator | Cultivate Health
P 303.458.3548 | E lbjorkman@regis.edu

Center for Food Justice and Healthy Communities
The Center for Food Justice and Healthy Communities at Regis University facilitates teaching and learning together about the connections between food and health. Regis College will offer a minor in Community Food Systems beginning in the Spring of 2016. This area of study addresses issues of food production on environmental sustainability and food access related to poverty and justice.

For volunteer opportunities in the gardens, questions about the Center for Food Justice and Healthy Communities, or information about academic programs, please contact:

Damien Thompson, Ph.D.
Associate Professor | Regis College
P 303.458.4912 | E dthompson@regis.edu

Regis Neighborhood Health
Regis Neighborhood Health provides integrated primary and behavioral health care to the Cultivate Health Neighborhood. Regis University employees will be able to receive services beginning in August 2015 with limited hours. The clinic will open to everyone who lives or works in the neighborhoods around Regis in August 2016. Programs and services include primary care, physical therapy, pharmacy consultation and behavioral health counseling.

For information about any of the health care services, please contact:
Cultivate Health Contact Information

Father Dirk Dunfee, S.J., FNP-BC
Director, Regis Neighborhood Health
P 303.964-5122 | E dunfe713@regis.edu

Support Cultivate Health

To donate toward Cultivate Health or Regis Neighborhood Health opportunities, please contact:

Mary Brozovich
Director of Foundation and Corporate Relations | University Advancement
P 303.458.4376 | E mbrozovi@regis.edu

Service Learning Opportunities

Service Learning is a teaching practice that engages learners in the application of theory to serving the community to achieve desired learning outcomes. If you are a faculty member and would like to incorporate a Cultivate Health related project into your classes as service learning, please contact:

Cheryl Schwartz, M.A., CC
Director, Service Learning | Rueckert-Hartman College for Health Professions
P 303.964.5754 | E ceschwartz@regis.edu

Aria Denver Development

The former MaryCrest Convent site at 52nd Avenue and Federal Boulevard in Denver is being developed by Urban Ventures as Aria Denver. Urban Ventures, led by Susan Powers, is a partner with Regis on Cultivate Health. For information about real estate development at Aria Denver contact:

Cassie Wright
Project Manager | Urban Ventures
P 303.446.0761 | E cassie@urbanventuresllc.com

Rueckert-Hartman College for Health Professions Student Internships

(RHCHP) and the Division of Counseling and Family Therapy coordinate student internships at several of the schools and resource centers in the Cultivate Health neighborhood. For information about these internships, contact:

Linda Osterlund, Ph.D., LMFT
Associate Dean | Rueckert-Hartman College for Health Professions, Division of Counseling and Family Therapy
P 719.264.7011 | E losterla@regis.edu