

Notice of Non-discrimination

Regis University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, religion, veteran status, marital status, pregnancy, parental status, gender identity, sexual orientation, genetic information or any other legally protected status in any of its policies, programs or activities and provides equal access to education.

All Regis University community members (faculty, students, staff, administrators, trustees, contract personnel, agents, visitors, invitees, and volunteers) are prohibited by law from engaging in acts of discrimination, including sexual harassment or sexual violence. Regis University's non-discrimination policy extends to employment, education and admission. Regis will take immediate and appropriate corrective action up to and including expulsion or dismissal, in cases where it has been determined that discrimination or sexual misconduct has occurred.

Review the complete Regis University Non-discrimination and Sexual Misconduct Policy at: Regis.edu/TitleIX. Questions regarding Title IX can also be directed to the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights.
