Colorado Pharmacist Society
The mission of the Colorado Pharmacists Society is to promote, develop, and advance the profession of pharmacy to optimize patient care and public health. Colorado Pharmacists Society is the leader in advancing pharmacy professionals as essential providers of healthcare. The CPhA began as the Colorado Pharmacal Association in 1890 and celebrated its 110th Annual Convention in the year 2000. CPhA was the affiliated state association of the American Pharmacists Association (APhA). CSHP began serving health-system pharmacists over 50 years ago as an affiliate of the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists (ASHP). These two organizations began a formal merge process in June of 2000 and completed the official formation of the Colorado Pharmacists Society in June 2001.

Graduate Council
Graduate council is an interdisciplinary club on campus that involves pharmacy, physical therapy, and biomedical science master’s students. There is generally one representative from each class within the schools. Graduate council helps to find and run student events both on and off campus. Our goal is to help foster friendships between schools and help each other better understand our individual professions and life goals. Examples of events and items that are conducted or provided by graduate council include trivia nights, pub nights, kickball, Nuggets tickets, and on campus play tickets. Meetings are every other Thursday at about 5:30pm.

Industry Pharmacists Organization (IPhO)
The Industry Pharmacists Organization is exclusively dedicated to advancing the careers of industry pharmacists. IPhO believes that pharmacists’ scientific training, medication expertise, clinical acumen, patient focus, and experience as healthcare providers make us ideally suited for a career in the pharmaceutical industry. Pharmacists are playing a key role in Development, Medical, and Commercial organizations and are making valuable contributions to drug development and optimal medication utilization each and every day. IPhO works with its members to advocate for advancing industry-based pharmacists to leadership positions by increasing awareness and recognition among employers, senior management, colleagues, thought leaders, educators, and students of what pharmacists have to offer.

Student Society of Health-System Pharmacy (SSHP)
American Society of Health-System Pharmacists (ASHP) believes that the mission of pharmacists is to help people achieve optimal health outcomes. ASHP helps its members achieve this mission by advocating and supporting the professional practice of pharmacists in hospitals, health systems, ambulatory clinics, and other settings spanning the full spectrum of medication use. The SSHP at Regis University is aligned with the national mission and enacts the strategic priorities and goals within the School of Pharmacy and local community. SSHP’s efforts are focused on promoting involvement in health-system organizations, coordinating events featuring health-system speakers, delivering programs to prepare students for postgraduate residency training, and implementing professional development projects related to ASHP’s Pharmacy Advancement Initiative. In addition, students plan and develop a school-level Clinical Skills Competition. For more information: https://www.ashp.org/Pharmacy-Student.
