CLINICAL EDUCATION

Students in this fellowship complete a minimum of 850 hours of clinical practice focused on orthopaedic physical therapy. This includes a minimum of 700 hours in virtual rounds, and 150 hours of direct one-on-one clinical practice working with AAOMPT fellows, of which 20 hours occur during the weekend lab intensives on campus.

Program Overview

The program design allows flexibility for clinicians to pursue the Fellowship in OMPT and maintain a full-time work schedule. There is no need to relocate. In addition to the online component for the management courses, each course includes one weekend intensive session which starts on Friday and ends Sunday afternoon, allowing you to get back to work and life.
