

Human Resource Management MBA

We're training the next generation of human resource leaders who are eager to help others find their professional niche, develop their innate talents and sustain career success. If you're a strong team player and have a knack for matching skill with opportunity, our innovative Human Resource Management MBA can accelerate your human resources career. As an HR leader, you're directly responsible for hiring, training, leadership development, employee relations, workplace safety, compensation and benefits for your organization's employees — now it's time to launch your own career to the next level.

The Power of People Meets Business Strategy.

The human resources department at any successful company is directly responsible for partnering with the organization's business leaders to keep the organization headed in the right direction. Human resource decisions have an impact on every aspect of the organization, which is why human resources managers who can think strategically from a business perspective are in high demand. No matter which industry you're in, the Regis HR-MBA will help you harness the power of people to achieve shared success.

Pioneers in Human Resource Management

The HR-MBA program at Regis University is aligned with the Society of Human Resource Management (SHRM) and their Body of Applied Skills and Knowledge (BASK). The BASK model includes nine behavioral competencies grouped into three clusters: leadership, interpersonal and business. Along with these HR competencies, the MBA component of the program also provides graduates with important skills in areas such as business ethics, finance, accounting, teamwork, communication and strategy.
