Educational Leadership

Providing a safe and productive learning environment to prepare the minds of tomorrow is one of the most important jobs in America. Are you able to rise to the challenge of acting as an advocate, a resource and an inspiration for students and teachers alike? Then you may have what it takes to be a principal or school district leader.

Lead the next generation of learners.

Being a principal or district leader combines the administrative, ethical and fiscal challenges of running an organization with the guidance, foresight and educational requirements of being a teacher. At Regis University, you'll engage in relevant and rigorous learning experiences in the areas of strategic leadership, equity leadership, community leadership, fiscal leadership, policy leadership, instructional leadership and data-literacy leadership.

What you'll need:

The Flexibility You Need

Our program formats and three annual program start dates are designed to be flexible and convenient, so you can fit your education into your life. You can choose to attend your classes in person, or login via your internet connection when it's time for class.

You can also choose our 26-credit academic certificate program, or take just three more courses to earn a full M.Ed. in Educational Leadership. Both options satisfy the requirements for obtaining your principal licensure, so take your pick!

Applying Is Easier Than You Think

- ! No application fee
- ! No letters of recommendation
- ! No college standardized assessment test
- ! Admission decision usually within 3 business days

Go to regis.edu/apply or contact an admissions counselor to help get you started.

LICENSURE REQUIREMENTS

Licensure is subject to the rules of the Colorado Department of Education's experience requirements. To earn a principal's license in Colorado, applicants must have three years in a licensed capacity in a school district.
