

Organizational Leadership

You're a consensus builder and team leader. You are keen on recognizing opportunities, defining problems and implementing creative solutions. While we all possess the capacity for leadership, only those who cultivate it will become truly effective. At Regis University, we're developing the next generation of effective, ethical and socially responsible leaders.

Learn to lead in a global marketplace.

With rapid changes affecting many industries, companies are seeking people who can help their organizations not only respond but succeed. A graduate degree in organizational leadership hones your skills in critical thinking, communication, negotiation and problem solving. Learn how to work smarter with others and help cross-functional teams succeed. Assist companies – which greatly need strategic leaders – with navigating constantly shifting environments. Make a positive impact for not only them, but for society.
