

Literature Specialization

Are you inspired by the works of English-language authors? Explore the fundamentals of fiction, nonfiction, plays and poetry, by analyzing these works for their form and function. By studying literature in its period of time, you will gain a deeper understanding of history and how literature continues to influence culture.

Explore the power of the written word.

As an M.A. student pursuing a specialization in literature, you will discover how novels, nonfiction, plays and poetry are not only creations of individual writers or products of their specific historical time and place but are also catalysts for cultural change.
