

Communication

Nothing in the world is accomplished without clear and effective communication. It is how every person, organization and nation interacts with and comprehends the world. The B.A. in Communication from Regis University equips you to play a significant role in the strategic success of today's range of companies, from small businesses and nonprofits, to major corporations and global enterprises.

Collaborate, motivate and lead.

At Regis University, you'll take courses developed in response to the skills and qualities employers seek. These include the ability to:

- | Think critically
- | Persuade and motivate
- | Solve problems
- | Resolve conflicts
- | Negotiate
- | Function effectively across cultures
