

Xavier-Louisiana PharmD & Regis MS in Health Services Administration

Earn a Dual Degree in Health Services Administration Online from Regis University

Management and leadership positions within hospitals, pharmaceutical companies, retail pharmacies and managed care organizations increasingly require the pharmaceutical knowledge obtained through a Doctor of Pharmacy degree combined with management, administrative and business knowledge.

With both a Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Xavier-Louisiana and a Master of Science in Health Services Administration degree from Regis University, you'll gain the financial, management, administrative and strategic planning skills needed to successfully lead in complex health care organizations.

Advancing the business of patient care.

The MS in Health Services Administration from Regis University is much like an MBA for health care. You'll gain the legal, financial, management and administrative skills needed to keep major health care companies and organizations running smoothly and efficiently. Courses in finance, organizational ethics, operations, leadership, research and technology management will build upon your pharmacy courses and experiences to provide you with a deeper appreciation of the social and ethical obligations and complexities involved in providing health care. Courses are taught by faculty-practitioners who are health care professionals and multidisciplinary industry experts.
