

2020-2021 FAFSA On-Time Appeal Form

Student Name: _____ Student ID # _____

Traditional students who did not file their FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) by the March 1 priority filing date and did not submit required documents to our office by May 1 are not considered for various forms of need-based aid.

Please attach a written explanation of the extenuating circumstances that caused you to miss the priority filing deadline. Please keep in mind that the FAFSA is available starting in October. Your explanation must demonstrate your inability to complete the application within the above mentioned time-frame (October 2019 – March 1, 2020).

Late appeals must be written by the student. Statements from parents or relatives may be accepted in addition to a student statement.

Examples include:

- Hospitalization
- Leave of Absence
- Applications submitted with incorrect personal information
- Any other extenuating circumstances rendering you incapable of applying by the priority filing date.

If your appeal is approved, it will be a one-time exception and based on the date you submitted your FAFSA, you may receive a reduction in aid. Late appeals will not be reviewed if a FAFSA is not yet submitted. We will notify you via email once your appeal has been reviewed within 1-2 weeks.
