Furthering your education provides a host of benefits, from deepening your knowledge in a field of study you’re passionate about to greatly expanding your opportunities for personal and professional growth. Having your graduate degree sets you apart and expands your professional network. What kind of return on investment can you expect from graduate school?

Benefits of an advanced degree

- A higher salary: Advanced degree holders earn over 16% more annually than those with a bachelor’s degree alone and enjoy a lower unemployment rate*

- More career options: By 2020, six million of all jobs in the US will require a master’s degree

- An expanded network: When you become a graduate student, you are exposed to a network of peers and faculty who are successful in their field. As a graduate of Regis, you will join a network of nearly 80,000 alumni.

- Deeper knowledge and skills: Develop expertise in a specific field and complement the skills and knowledge you already have while demonstrating your commitment to strengthening your competencies.

Scholarships

Scholarships for graduate school are competitive. Check out regis.edu/graduatetypesofaid for more information on scholarships.

Grants

The Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant provides grants of up to $4,000 a year to students who are completing or plan to complete course work needed to begin a career in teaching. To learn more about this program, visit StudentAid.gov/teach.

The Colorado State Grant is available to Colorado residents only who demonstrate financial need and are applying for certain eligible health care programs. The award is up to $5,000 per year.

Loans

Student loans can come from the federal government or from private sources such as a bank or financial institution. Federal student loans usually offer borrowers lower interest rates and have more flexible repayment options than loans from banks or other private sources.
