

Rachel M. Fanelli MSHSA, BSN, BA, RN, RNC-OB

EDUCATION:

Regis University, Denver, Co August 2021- August 2023
Master of Science in Health Services Administration
(Focus on informatics, Leadership, Compliance/Ethics, Finance, Quality & Safety)
Honors Graduate

Regis University, Denver, Co May 2013- May 2014
Bachelor of Science in Nursing (Accelerated)
Deans List GPA: 3.833
Cum Laude

San Jose State University, San Jose, Ca August 2009 – December 2011
Bachelor of Arts in Psychology

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

UC Davis Medical Center, Sacramento, Ca July 2020- Present
Clinical Nurse II D3/T3 – Labor & Delivery, University Birthing Suites

- Telephone triage and advice nurse
- Trained OR scrub nurse.
- Competent in circulating and PACU recovery.
- Total patient care of laboring patients, antepartum patients, and postpartum couplets.
- Proficient in triage of expectant mothers and post-partum follow ups.
- Experienced with high risk antepartum and labor patients.
- Telemetry trained and certified.
- Zulresso trained.
- Experience with Med- Surg population.
- Active member of Unit Based Practice Council Committee.
- Perform chart audits looking for specific trends, analyze the data and help identify process improvements.

UC Davis Health Perinatal Orientation and Education Program (POEP) January 2022- Present
Instructor- Labor & Delivery, University Birthing Suites

- Responsible for creating scenarios and running simulation for new labor and delivery nurses.
- Develop PowerPoint presentation and presented to class.
- Teach hands on skills lab. Provide verbal instruction and physical demonstration of proper use and handling of equipment and devices used within Labor and delivery and operating room.
- Collaborate with fellow nurses within labor and delivery unit to develop a POEP program.

Dignity Health Perinatal Orientation and Education Program Educator (Sacramento)
Educator

March 2022- Present

- Collaborate with other nurse educators in Sacramento region to deliver didactic and simulation for new labor and delivery nurses.
- Run skills lab, simulation and deliver didactic presentations.

Chamberlain University
Clinical Faculty

January 2023- Present

- Provide support and instructor to nursing students during clinical rotations.

Marshall Medical Center, Placerville, Ca
Staff RN/ Relief Charge RN – Labor & Delivery

August 2016- July 2020

- Circulator RN for c-section cases, OB emergencies and PACU recovery RN.
- Educated and assisted mothers with breastfeeding, postpartum and newborn care.
- As relief charge nurse, able to serve as the primary decision maker for clinical situations during a shift and manage staffing and assignments as patient acuity changes.
- Lead educators in the Didactic Program for the Birth Center.

Marshall Medical Center, Placerville, Ca
Staff RN North 2 Medical/Telemetry

July 2015- August 2016

- Functioned as a patient advocate and oversees any non-professionals whose involvement or activities directly impacts patient care.
- Competency in timely rhythm interpretation for patients on telemetry.

Eskaton Care Center Manzanita, Carmichael, Ca
RN Supervisor (Noc Shift)

December 2014- May 2015

- Responsible for overall nursing care and patient assignments for over thirty patients on night shift
- Supervises direct patient care given to residents by CNAs and LVNS. Ensuring continuity of appropriate care by leading, directing, and coaching the support staff.

CERTIFICATIONS

1. Basic Certification in Quality and Safety 2022- Institute for Health Improvement (IHI)
2. NRP Certified: 10/2022- 10/2024
3. ALSO Certified (Advanced Life Support Obstetrics): 4/2023-4/2026
4. BLS: 2/2023- 2/2025

SKILLS

1. Experience with EPIC charting system.
2. Experience with OBIX Perinatal Data System.

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

1. Educator for UCD POEP program.
2. Educator for Dignity Health POEP program.
3. Lead educator/ developer for Marshall Birth Center didactic program and preceptor.

4. Unit Base Practice Council (UBPC) committee member at UCD
5. Appointed as Sacramento AWHONN Section Treasurer/Secretary: March 2023- Present