

Lauren Hirshberg

Department of History, Politics and Political Economy
Regis University
3333 Regis Blvd
Denver, CO 80221-1099

lhirshberg@regis.edu

Education

Ph.D., Department of History, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI, August 2011
Dissertation: Targeting Kwajalein: U.S. Empire, Militarization and Suburbanization and the Marshall Islands, 1944-1986
Advisors: Professor Penny Von Eschen, Professor Damon Salesa, Professor Matthew Lassiter

Major fields: Post-1865 U.S. History, Transnational U.S. History, Cold War/Empire Studies, Comparative Colonialisms, Pacific History, American Studies, Pacific Studies

M.S. Medill School of Journalism, Northwestern University, Evanston, IL, December 2002

B.A., Department of History, University of California at Davis, Davis, CA, June 2000
Graduated with Honors and Departmental Citation in History

Academic Appointments/Fellowships

Associate Professor of History, Department of History, Politics and Political Economy
Regis University
August 2022-present

Assistant Professor of History, Department of History, Politics and Political Economy
Regis University
August 2018-2022

Postdoctoral Teaching Fellowship in Thinking Matters Program, Stanford University
August 2015-July 2018

Visiting Assistant Professor in the Departments of History, African American Studies, and Asian American Studies at University of California, Los Angeles
September 2014-June 2015

American Council of Learned Societies New Faculty Fellows Award (Supported position as Visiting Assistant Professor in the Department of History at University of California, Los Angeles)
August 2012-June 2014

Visiting Lecturer in the Department of History at the University of California, Berkeley
August

2011-May 2012

Additional Fellowships and Awards

Regis College Distributive Core Innovation Award, Regis College Dean's Excellence Fund (June 2021)

Center for Integrative Learning, Dean's College Fund, for Racial Justice Course Development (May 2021)

Regis University Faculty Development Summer Research Grant (awarded February 2020)

Thinking Matters Fellow Award, Stanford University
June 2016

UCLA Chancellor's Award for Postdoctoral Research (History Department Nomination),
April 2014

Mellon/ACLS Dissertation Completion Fellowship, 2010-2011

Robert A. and Barbara Divine Graduate Student Travel Grant, Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations, June 2010

Rackham International Research Award, University of Michigan, March 2010

George C. Marshall/Baruch Fellowship, Spring 2010

W. Stull Holt Dissertation Fellowship, Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations,
Fall 2009

American Historical Association Albert J. Beveridge Grant, Spring 2009

Rackham Humanities Research Dissertation Fellowship, University of Michigan, Spring 2009

Outstanding Graduate Student Instructor Award, University of Michigan, Spring 2008

University of Michigan History Preliminary Examinations Passed with Distinction, December
2007

Madeline J. Halpern Award for Outstanding Leadership and Social Awareness, Medill School of Journalism, Northwestern University, June 2002

Publications

Suburban Empire: Cold War Militarization in the U.S. Pacific
University of California Press (February 2022)

“Domestic Containment in the Marshall Islands: Mapping American Family Life onto Cold War Military Empire in the Pacific.” Solicited article for LABOR journal special edition, Empire and Labor double issue, featured by Duke University Press within their journal and book catalogue. Volume 13, Numbers 3-4, December 2016, pp. 177-196.

“Navigating Sovereignty Under a Cold War Military Industrial Colonial Complex: U.S. Military Empire and Marshallese Decolonization.” Solicited article for History and Technology special issue on Nation, Knowledge and Imagined Futures: Science, Technology, and Nation-Building, Post-1945. Volume 31, 2015, Issue 3: pp. 259-274.

“Home Land (In)Security: The Labor of U.S. Cold War Military Empire in the Marshall Islands.” Solicited chapter for Making the Empire Work: Labor and United States Imperialism (New York: New York University Press, July 2015), pp. 335-356.

“Nuclear Families: (Re)producing 1950s Suburban America in the Marshall Islands” Solicited article for OAH Magazine of History, special issue on the 1950s (October 2012): pp. 39-43.

Academic Service

Faculty Director for the Center for the Study of War Experience, Regis University (Fall 2020-ongoing)

Committee member for Faculty Development Committee (elected for 3 years starting Fall 2021-)

Committee member for 2021-2022 History Job Search

Committee member for 2020-2021 Politics Job Search

Committee member on Regis University proposal development for new Asia/Pacific Studies minor

Faculty participant in Regis University Center for Integrative Learning

Book Review of David Vine, The United States of War: A Global History of America's Endless Conflicts, from Columbus to the Islamic State, in the Journal of Interdisciplinary History (Fall 2021), pp. 22-23.

Article Peer Reviewer for American Historical Review (November 2020)

Co-organized and co-moderated Regis University's “Good Trouble Conversation” special event: Discussion/Interview with Walter Springs' Family members, as part of the Center for the Study of War Experience offerings (Spring 2021)

Organized and fundraised (at Regis and in the local Denver community) for special Regis University: “‘To be gorgeous you must first be seen’: Seeing the Stories Refugees in On Earth We’re Briefly Gorgeous: A Conversation with Ocean Vuong” (for Spring 2023/delayed due to Covid). Event is part of Center of the Study of War Experience’s special thematic focus on “Refugees.”

Invited Guest Faculty Speaker, Pre-Election Panel (Topic: “Histories of Political and White Supremacist Violence in the U.S.”)

Organized by Regis University Student Government Association (October 2020)

Organizer of online interdisciplinary symposium for Regis University: “Racism, State Violence and the Current Crisis: A Panel on Black Lives Matter” September 29, 2020 (via CrowdCast)

Regis College Core Review Steering Committee (January 2019-August 2020)

One Regis, One Book (Faculty Discussant of Annual Regis Book, Claudia Rankine’s Citizen, Fall 2018)

Article Peer Reviewer for American Quarterly (September 2015)

Book Review of Prue Ahrens, Lamont Lindstrom and Fiona Paisley, Across the World with the Johnsons: Visual Culture and American Empire in the Twentieth Century, in Journal of Pacific History (Fall 2014): pp. 366-368.

Book Review of Giff Johnson, Don’t Ever Whisper: Darlene Keju—Pacific Health Pioneer, Champion of Nuclear Survivors, in Island Studies Journal (November 2013): pp. 329-331.

Selected Conferences/Workshop Presentations

“Mapping Identity and Placemaking Across U.S. Empire in the Pacific—Moving Peoples and Racial Ideologies from World War II into the 21st Century” (Panel Organizer and Panelist)
Organization for American Historians Annual Conference
March 2023, Los Angeles, CA

Invited scholar/book talk University of Maryland, Center for Global Migration Studies
Virtual/Online, April 2022

Invited scholar/discussant—Massachusetts Historical Society (Comment)
Virtual/Online, February 2022

Invited scholar/participant in online Base Studies/History Workshop, Vanderbilt University
(Organizer, Dr. Paul Kramer)
Virtual/Online, Summer 2021

“Erasure in the Everyday: The Violence of Cold War U.S. Exceptionalism across the Pacific.”
(Comment)
Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations Annual Conference

Virtual/Online, June 2021

"Closely Controlled Spaces: Company Towns, Military Bases, and the Undemocratic Organization of Economic Landscapes." (Panelist)
Organization for American Historians Annual Conference
Chicago, IL Spring 2021 (online)

"Resistance in the Pacific from Nuclear Imperialism to Climate Catastrophes: Pacific Islander Woman on the Global Stage Fighting for Change." (Panelist)
National Women's Studies Association Conference Annual Conference on "Protest, Justice and Transnational Organizing"
November, 2019, San Francisco, CA

"Gendering the fight: resistance to Empire across the Americas." Organized interdisciplinary panel for the American Studies Association Annual Conference on "Build as We Fight" (and Comment)
November 2019, Honolulu, HI

"Operation Homecoming: Reclaiming Marshallese Homelands in the face of U.S. Cold War Military Imperialism." (Panelist)
Native American and Indigenous Studies Association Tenth Annual Meeting
May 2018, Los Angeles, CA

"Comparing U.S. Military Culture in the Pacific and the U.S. West: A Conversation with Pacific Historians." (Panelist)
Western History Association Annual Conference on "Against the Grain"
November 2017, San Diego, CA

"Reef Crossings: Navigating the Segregated Spaces of U.S. Empire in the Marshall Islands." Invited to Vanderbilt University to share pre-circulated paper talk with History Department.
October 2017, Nashville, TN

"Domestic Containment in the Marshall Islands: Making a Home for Cold War Workers in the U.S. Imperial Pacific." (Panelist)
Seventeenth Berkshire Conference on the History of Women, Genders and Sexualities
June 2017, Hofstra University, NY

"Theorizing the Pacific World." (Invited to be part of special roundtable), and "Looking Beyond the Battlefields: New Approaches to the U.S. Military and the World Since 1945." (Panelist)
Organization of American Historians Annual Meeting on "Circulation"
April 2017, New Orleans, LA

"Materiality of U.S. Empire." (Comment)
Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations
June 2016, San Diego, CA

"Finding Home on Kwajalein: Remembering U.S. Military Imperialism in the Marshall Islands during the Cold War."

Center for the Study of Force and Diplomacy at Temple University symposium “U.S. Bases and the Construction of Hegemony” (invitation only).

Organizers intend to publish an edited collection of presented papers following symposium October 10-11, 2015, Philadelphia, PA

“Nuclear Legacies: U.S. Military Empire and the Path Towards Marshallese Decolonization during the Cold War.” (Panelist)

Invited to participate in special joint session sponsored by the Organization of American Historians and the Japanese Association for American Studies

Organization of American Historians Annual Conference on “Taboos”

April 2015, St. Louis, MO

“Disciplining the Labor of U.S. Military Empire in the Marshall Islands during the Cold War.”

Labor and Empire Conference for LABOR (invitation only, Panelist)

Center for the Study of Work Labor and Democracy

November 2014, UC Santa Barbara, CA

“Almost Heaven: Imperialist Nostalgia and U.S. Weapons Testing in the Marshall Islands.”

American Studies Association Annual Conference on The Fun and the Fury: New Dialectics of Pleasure and Pain in the Post-American Century (Panelist)

November 2014, Los Angeles, CA

“Navigating Sovereignty Under a Cold War Military Industrial Colonial Complex

U.S. Military Empire and Marshallese Decolonization.”

Workshop: Dark Matters II: Science and the Cold War in a Decolonizing World (invitation only)

Liu Institute for Global Issues and Department of History

University of British Columbia

September 2014, Vancouver, Canada

“Imperial Intimacies: Bridges Across U.S. Empire in the Pacific.” (Panelist)

Organized panel for the Association of Asian American Studies Annual Conference on Building Bridges, Forging Movements

April 2014, San Francisco, CA

“Security State: Interrogating U.S. Postwar Military and Prison Structures on the Islands of Kwajalein, Guam and Alcatraz.” (Panelist)

Organized panel for the American Historical Association Annual Conference on Disagreement, Debate, Discussion

January 2014, Washington D.C.

“Finding ‘Home’ in the U.S. Pacific Empire: Segregation and Suburbia in the Marshall Islands During the Cold War.” (Panelist)

Association of Asian American Studies Annual Meeting on The Afterlives of Empire

April 2013, Seattle, WA

“Home Land (In)Security: U.S. Military Empire and Suburban Segregation in the Marshall Islands During the Cold War.”

Department of History, UCLA

April 2013, Westwood, CA

(Also given as invited guest speaker for Phi Alpha Theta, UCLA's chapter of the National History Honor Society, May 2013)

"Networks and Movements Across the Imperial Pacific during WWII and the Cold War."

(Panelist)

Pacific History Association Conference

December 2012, Wellington, New Zealand

"What is Metropolitan History and Where is it Going?"

Invited to be Guest Panelist for Special Roundtable

Los Angeles History and Metropolitan Studies Roundtable

October 2012, Pasadena, CA

"Home Land (In)security: The Labor of U.S. Cold War Military Empire in the Marshall Islands"

Writing Workshop on Labor and Empire (invitation only)

Collaborative workshop for the New York University Press edited volume Making the Empire Work for the Culture Labor History Series

September 2012, University of Toronto

"Narrating Place within the U.S. Cold War Empire: Targeting Kwajalein Missile Base."

(Panelist)

Organized panel for the Organization of American Historians Annual Meeting on Americans Divided and United: Multiple and Shifting Solidarities

March 2011, Houston, TX

"Military Suburbanization: Exploring U.S. Cold War Imperialism in the Marshall Islands."

(Panelist)

Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations Annual Conference

June 2010, Madison, WI

"Militarization in the Pacific: Tracing Local Impact through Island Narratives." (Panelist)

Organized panel for the American Historical Association Annual Conference on Oceans, Islands and Continents

January 2010, San Diego, CA

"Challenging Colonialism in Honolulu: Education and Self-Determination in Papakolea, 1920-1960." (Panelist)

Pacific Coast Branch of the American Historical Association Conference

August 2008, Pasadena, CA

Employment/Teaching

Assistant Professor of History, Department of History, Politics and Political Economy, Regis University

August 2018-present

History 223 and 224: Both halves of the U.S. Survey (223: to 1865, 224 1865-present)

History 455: Stories from Wartime Experience: Histories of African American Citizenship and Service (cross-listed with Peace and Justice, PJ451P; Politics 455 and Regis College Core 430M)—This course, which I co-taught with Rose Campbell as part of the Center for the Study of War Experience annual course offerings was written up and covered in local media news, Denver Post and Denver's Channel 9 News, for our special speakers' events including Tuskegee Airmen, as well as the course's connection to supporting the creation of Regis University's new Walter Springs memorial scholarship

History 484I: Mythologies of the West

History 485J: The 80s: Politics and Culture

History 484E: Segregation in U.S. History (cross-listed with Peace and Justice, and Politics)

History 485F: "War on...The History of U.S. (In)Security

History/Politics 201: Origins and Challenges of the Modern World—Identity and Politics (co-taught with Politics Professor)

History/Politics 201: Origins and Challenges of the Modern World—The Age of the Anthropocene

History 494: Guided Research Mentorship (overseen projects on Global/Local Environmental History and Social Justice, the Cold War and the Long Black Freedom Struggle, and the Cold War, U.S. Empire, and Latin America)

Courses in Development for Regis College to be taught between 2022-2024 (with support from Dean's Excellence Fund for new courses cross-listed through the Center for Integrative Learning on racial justice, and in support of our new Asia/Pacific Studies minor):

James Baldwin's America (racial justice course)

Southern Nation: History and Politics of a Post-Civil War Society (racial justice course to be co-taught with Politics professor, Ian Zuckerman)

History of Hawai'i (Asia/Pacific Studies minor)

The Nuclear Pacific (Asia/Pacific Studies minor)

Regis College Distributive Core Innovation Award from Regis College Dean's Excellence Fund (received June 2021) will be used to expand the local and global participatory learning for: History 201: Global Environmental History/The Age of the Anthropocene (to be taught 2022)

Teaching Fellow in Thinking Matters Program, Office of the Vice Provost of Undergraduate Education, Stanford University

August 2015-current

Collaborating with interdisciplinary teaching teams to teach freshman introductory courses across a range of topics:

Fall (September-December 2015, 2016 and 2017)

"Spirit of Democracy" (Political Science, History)

Winter (January-March 2016, 2017 and 2018)

"Rules of War" (Law, Political Science, History)

"Landscapes of Segregation in U.S. History" (This is my course I am teaching for Stanford Introductory Studies Seminar, cross-listed under American Studies, History and African American Studies, Winter 2018)

Spring (April-June 2016, sabbatical 2017)

"Century of Violence" (History)

(April-June 2018)
“American Enemies” (History)

Visiting Assistant Professor in the Departments of History, Asian American Studies, and African American Studies, University of California at Los Angeles, July 2014-July 2015

Fall (September 2014-December 2014, courses also taught in previous quarters at UCLA)
History 140B: United States History 1929-1960
(undergraduate lecture)

African American Studies 188A: Landscapes of Segregation in U.S. History
(upper-level undergraduate seminar)

Winter (January 2015-March 2015)
Asian American Studies 122A: Indigeneity, Empire and Resistance in the Pacific
(undergraduate lecture)

Spring (April 2015-June 2015 also taught in previous quarters at UCLA)
History 97D: “War on”...The Narrative Roots of U.S. National Security
(undergraduate readings seminar)

History 13C: 20th Century United States History
(undergraduate survey lecture)

Visiting Assistant Professor in U.S. History, University of California at Los Angeles, July 2012-July 2014 (supported through the American Council of Learned Societies New Faculty Fellows Award)

Fall (September 2013-December 2014—year two)
History 140B: United States History, 1929-1960
(undergraduate lecture)

Spring (April 2014-June 2014)
History 144: U.S. and the World
(collaborated to create and co-teach new undergraduate lecture course with Professor Ellen Dubois)

History 191: Landscapes of Segregation in U.S. History
(upper-level undergraduate capstone seminar)

Fall (September 2012-December 2012—year one)
History 140B: United States History, 1929-1960
(undergraduate lecture)

Winter (January 2013-March 2013)
History 97D: “War on...” The Narrative Roots of U.S. National Security
(undergraduate readings seminar)

Spring (March 2013-June 2013)
History 101: Pacific Islands History

(undergraduate lecture)

History 198: Honors Research/Writing (Thesis)
(undergraduate history honors thesis advising Spring 2013-Winter 2014)

Visiting Lecturer in Modern U.S. History, University of California at Berkeley, August 2011-May 2012

Fall (August 2011-December 2011)

History 130B: U.S. and the World Since 1945--Cold War Empire and Global Decolonization
(undergraduate lecture)

History 103D: “War on...” The Narrative Roots of U.S. National Security
(undergraduate readings seminar)

Spring (January 2012- May 2012)

History 131B: Creating Modern American Society: U.S. Social and Cultural History from the End of the Civil War to the Global Age
(undergraduate lecture/American Cultures requirement)

History 101: Social, Political, Economic and Cultural Change in “The American Century”
(undergraduate thesis writing seminar on topics in 20th Century U.S. History)

Volunteer Teaching

Instructor, Stanford University Center for Ethics and Society, April-June 2017

I collaborated with Stanford postdoctoral fellow and political theorist Dr. Ian Zuckerman to create and co-teach a new course entitled Freedom and Equality Across Time (Politics and History) for Stanford University’s McCoy Ethics in Society Hope House Scholars Program. Since Spring 2001, the Hope House Scholars Program has offered courses for recovering addicts living in a residential treatment program.

Redwood City, CA

Main References

Professor of History and William R. Kenan, Jr. Professor of American Studies

Penny Von Eschen (co-chair)

American Studies Program

University of Virginia

Nau Hall—South Lawn

Charlottesville, VA 22904

pmv3c@virginia.edu

434-924-7174

Professor of History Philip Deloria

Department of History

Harvard University

Robinson Hall 114, 35 Quincy Street

Cambridge, MA 02138

deloria@fas.harvard.edu

617-495-8705

Dr. Cynthia Enloe
Research Professor
Adjunct Professor of Political Science
Department of International Development, Community, and Environment
Women and Gender Studies, and Department of Political Science
Clark University
950 Main Street
Worcester, MA 01610-1477
cenloe@clarku.edu
508-793-7201