

International Payment Policy at Regis University

Because you hold citizenship in a country other than the United States, you need to be aware of the tuition payment policy at Regis University for international students.

What is the payment policy for international students?

As an international student, you are allowed to register for courses, but you must pay your tuition in-full by the tuition due date. If you fail to pay tuition in-full on or before the tuition due date, then you will automatically be dropped from class. This may cause you to fall below the full-time requirement of your F-1 visa. Be sure that you plan ahead, especially if you are paying tuition with funds from your home country.

When is tuition due?

If you are attending accelerated terms (5 week or 8 week), tuition is due on the first day of the course. If you are attending traditional, semester-based terms (16 week), then tuition is due August 1 for the fall semester and January 1 for the spring semester. Tuition payment due dates can be found here: <http://www.regis.edu/About-Regis-University/University-Offices-and-Services/Student-Accounts/Due-Dates.aspx>. There are no extensions for tuition payments. There are no exceptions for late tuition payments.

Am I eligible for financial aid?

International students attending Regis University on an F-1/J-1 visa are not eligible for financial aid. You must prove financial support for tuition/living expenses before an I-20 can be issued to you. You are expected to have adequate financial support for the duration of your studies at Regis University.

How do I make a tuition payment?

Tuition can be paid by any of these methods:

- Online: Login to WebAdvisor. Click on “Students” and then “Make a Payment”.
- Phone: Call the Student Services line. Student Services is available to take payment Monday-Thursday, 7.30am-10.00pm; Friday, 7.30am-6pm; Saturday, 8am-3pm.
- Mail: Mail payment to:
Regis University
3333 Regis Blvd
Mail Code A-8
Denver, CO 80221-1099
- On campus: You may pay your tuition at any campus location.

How will Regis University communicate tuition due date reminders with me?

Regis University communications are sent to your RegisNet (regis.edu) email. Upcoming tuition due date reminders are emailed to you. If you are dropped from class due to non-payment, then you will also receive a dropped registration status email. Be sure that you check your regis.edu email regularly.
