4.2 You agree to pay the Semester Housing Charges set forth above applicable to Your Assigned Space for the term of this Contract.

4.3 If Your Assigned Space is in a Single Occupancy 2-, 3- or 4-bedroom Boryla Unit, or a Double Occupancy 2-, 3-, or 4-bedroom Boryla Unit, and the number of Residents residing in the Boryla Unit is less than the maximum number allowed, You will be responsible only for Your per Resident amount of the applicable Semester Housing Charges set forth above. In that case, Residence Life will attempt to contract with one or more additional students to place them in that Boryla Unit until it is occupied at full capacity, unless You provide notice to Residence Life of Your intent to elect one of the following options:

a. Option 1: You may elect to “buy out” the vacancy/ies and enter into an amended contract in which You agree to be responsible for and pay the entire Semester Housing Charges for all of the assignable spaces in the Boryla Unit from the date of such notification to the end of the term of this Contract.

b. Option 2: You may notify Residence Life that You will attempt to find the roommate(s) needed to fill the vacancy/ies in the Boryla Unit. Your intended roommate(s) must complete the Boryla Apartments application on the Regis Housing Portal, requesting You as a roommate, pay the $50 application fee, receive approval from Residence Life, and sign a Student Apartment Housing Contract on or before the add/drop day for classes in each semester. By notifying Residence Life of an election to pursue this option, You assume responsibility for and agree to pay the entire Semester Housing Charges for all of the assignable spaces in the Boryla Unit from the date of such notification to the date the intended roommate(s) sign(s) a Student Apartment Housing Contract, at which time the total Semester Housing Charges for all of the assignable spaces shall be evenly divided among the Residents of that Boryla Unit for the remainder of the term of this Contract.

c. Notwithstanding the options provided in Sections 4.3a or 4.3b above, if the relevant Boryla Unit is a 2-bedroom or 3-bedroom Double Occupancy unit, or a 3-bedroom or 4-bedroom Single Occupancy unit, occupied by more than one Resident who has signed a Student Apartment Housing Contract, all of the Residents in that Boryla Unit must jointly agree in writing whether or not to pursue either of such options set forth above.

4.4 Regis reserves the right to consolidate partially empty Boryla Units and/or require Residents to move to another Boryla Unit to maximize the number of Residents that may reside in each Boryla Unit.

4.5 The maximum number of Residents that may reside in each Boryla Unit is as follows:

Boryla Unit Type	Maximum Number of Residents

Unless otherwise approved by Residence Life in writing, eligibility for residency in the Boryla Apartments is limited to (i) Regis undergraduate students who have completed at least fifty-five (55) credits and are enrolled for a minimum of twelve (12) credit hours per semester, not including summer sessions, and (ii) graduate students who are enrolled at Regis in the Doctor of Physical Therapy or Doctor of Pharmacy programs for a minimum of (8) credit hours per semester, not including summer sessions. Evidence of eligibility may be required by Regis at the time of making an application for residency at the Boryla Apartments, and at any time during the term of this Contract. Failure by You to maintain eligibility for residency will constitute grounds for termination of this Contract. However, Regis will have the right, but not the obligation, to permit You to continue to occupy the Assigned Space notwithstanding a lack of continuous eligibility if, in Regis' sole judgment, compelling circumstances exist.

7. Notification of Termination of Resident Eligibility. If Your eligibility for residency at the Boryla Apartments ceases during the term of this Contract, You are required to give notice of this fact to Residence Life within ten (10) days of the loss of eligibility. Upon receipt of written confirmation from Residence Life of Your loss of eligibility, You must vacate the Premises within seventy-two (72) hours after receipt of such confirmation.

8. Furnishings and Equipment. The Premises will be provided furnished with the following appliances, furniture and furnishings: stove, refrigerator, dishwasher, washer, dryer, and Unit Common Area furniture and window coverings, and for the Assigned Space a single bed, desk, chest of drawers, chair and window coverings. 9. Charges for Damage.
 - 9.1 Regis will examine the condition of the Premises prior to Your taking possession of them and after You vacate them. Regis will assess appropriate charges for any damage to the Premises, beyond normal wear and tear, caused by Your fault through act or neglect, including, but not limited to: any condition requiring extra cleaning; repair or replacement of damaged furnishings, appliances and equipment located on the Premises; and removal of abandoned property. 9.2 Charges for any damage to the Premises discovered during Your occupation of the Premises may be assessed at that time.

9.3 Any charges authorized in this Section 9 will be billed to Your Student Account, and You will be sent an invoice for payment thereof. If the invoice for such amount is not paid within thirty (30) days from the date of the invoice, (i) You will be liable for payment of the amount stated in the invoice and any fees and costs incurred by Regis in collecting the amount due, and (ii) a hold will be placed on Your Student Account until the payment of that amount has been made, which gives Regis the right to, among other things, restrict and/or drop Your registration in any classes, and refuse to release Your transcripts and/or Your diploma until Your financial obligation to Regis is paid in full.

10. Utility Service. Regis will provide water, sewer, gas, electricity, streaming TV service, and internet service to the Premises for You at no additional cost.

Smoking (as defined in the Student Handbook) is prohibited inside any Boryla Unit or any Building Common Areas. Any smoking must be done at least 25 feet away from the exterior of the Boryla Apartments building. Smoking inside a Boryla Unit or inside any other area of the Boryla Apartments building may result in assessing You charges to cover the cost of cleaning, repainting, replacing carpet, or any other repair made necessary due to damage caused by smoking. Any such charges shall be charged to Your Student Account.

12. Guest Policy.

You are entitled to have Guests visit you in the Premises, and to have one Guest stay overnight in Your Assigned Space, subject to the provisions of this Section 12. No Guest may stay overnight more than three (3) consecutive nights, and not more than ten (10) nights per semester. No more than one Guest per bedroom will be allowed. You are responsible for the conduct of Your Guest(s) and for any financial obligations incurred by Your Guest(s) while at the Boryla Apartments. You and Your Guest(s) are subject to compliance with all of the applicable rules and regulations in the Student Handbook. If any Guest violates any of such rules and regulations or the provisions of this Section 12, the Guest may be required to promptly leave the Boryla Apartments. This provision will be strictly enforced by Regis. A violation of this provision will result in an assessment to cover all costs of cleaning, repainting, and repair of any damage, and possible termination of this Contract and Your removal from the Premises. This provision applies equally to pets of Your Guests.
- 15. Service Animals. Under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (“ADA”), a service animal (usually a dog) is defined as an animal that has been individually trained to do work or perform tasks for an individual with a disability. The work or task(s) performed by the dog must be directly related to the person's disability, including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability, and meets the definition of “service animal” under the ADA regulations at 28 C.F.R. § 35.104. Parking permits for the limited number of parking spaces available will be issued through a lottery system administered by Parking Services. Residents are not guaranteed a parking permit and are encouraged to apply as early as possible. Street parking around the Boryla Apartments will not be available for Residents. Any Resident who does not obtain a parking permit for the Boryla Apartments, but still wishes to bring a

RESIDENCE LIFE AND HOUSING

No request can be made for a transfer to another Boryla Unit during the current Contract term. Any Resident who has been approved for a voluntary transfer will be charged a $150 administration fee to his or her Student Account to cover the costs associated with the transfer and cleaning of the vacated Premises. This administration fee does not cover the costs assessed by Residence Life for any damage to the Premises at the time You vacate the Premises.

- 25. Notice of Hazardous Condition. You shall immediately notify Regis of any hazardous condition existing on the Premises, and the same shall be repaired or removed promptly by Regis. Therefore, You are strongly encouraged to insure Your personal property with an appropriate insurance policy. Regis has the right to require You to remove Your personal property from any Building Common Areas. Failure to comply with such a request within seventy-two (72) hours after notice of such request is given will result in removal of such items by Regis, and such items will be treated as abandoned property, giving Regis the right to donate or otherwise dispose of such personal property without any liability.

If You fall below the required credit hours and do not obtain written permission from Residence Life to remain a Resident, which permission may be denied in the sole discretion of Residence Life, this Contract may be terminated by Regis. d. If You fail to comply with any of the applicable rules and regulations set forth in the Student Handbook, Residence Life policies and procedures, or any applicable federal, state or local law, regulation or ordinance; or

e. If You fail to occupy the Assigned Space on or after Your scheduled date for occupancy without the written permission of Residence Life.
