

ENTERPRISE RESOURCE PLANNING
GRADUATE ACADEMIC CERTIFICATE

Companies large and small rely on Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) systems to manage their business intelligence, operations planning, purchasing and materials management. Whether you work or are interested in business operations, information systems, project management, or supply chain management, obtaining the graduate certificate in ERP is a great way to build upon your knowledge, stand out in an increasingly competitive job market, and make yourself a more valuable resource. This graduate certificate employs hands on laboratory exercises using SAP's® ERP software and databases, tools and resources. SAP is the leading global provider of Enterprise Resource Planning software.
