M.S. IN NURSING: NEONATAL NURSE PRACTITIONER

Regis University is renowned for its nursing education, based on the Jesuit Catholic principle of caring for the whole person. Regis offers the only Neonatal Nurse Practitioner (NNP) program in the state of Colorado. Neonatal nurse practitioners play a critical role in providing emergency and ongoing care to high-risk neonates in NICUs throughout the country. Learn on campus, or stay part of the class in real-time with our live, synchronized online technology.

PERKS OF THIS LOW RESIDENCY PROGRAM:

- ▶ Program starts in Fall semester (August)
- ▶ To help support nurses across the country Regis University is now offering this program two formats: on campus and distance learning with synchronized technology – be a part of the class in real time from a distance
- ▶ Two on campus intensives in the second and fourth semester required
- ▶ Graduates are eligible to take the National Certification Corporation (NCC) examination for NNPs
- ▶ Classes offered once a week, with weekday clinical rotations completed in two years
- ▶ Study with nationally recognized NNP faculty
