Dear Valued Community Member,

The Denver Police Department is committed to supporting neighborhoods and individuals that have been recently affected by an alarming incident.

On 09/25/2019, the Denver Police Department responded to the 3333 Regis Boulevard within the Regis Neighborhood on a report of a Suspicious Occurrence. During their regular duties, a staff member located a flyer displaying disturbing/threatening message. Unfortunately, this incident may have caused concern and impacted residents within the neighborhood.

The Denver Police Department would like to reach out to this community to ensure that any concerns or fears are addressed. We understand that this situation may have created increased anxiety, fear, or an increased fear of crime. We are committed to reducing any fears and partnering with the community to address all disturbing incidents. There are many resources available to assist you, and we encourage anyone who may be impacted by this incident to reach out.

The Denver Victim Assistance Unit is a great resource and can assist with Crisis Intervention and counseling. They can be reached at 720-913-6035. The Colorado Crisis Services is also available to assist and can be reached at 1-844-493-TALK.

The Colorado Resilience Collaborative offers focused assistance with Identity Based Violence and can be reached at 303-871-3042. If you have experienced or know of someone who has been a victim of Identity Based Violence, please reach out to the caring and compassionate members at the Colorado Resilience Collaborative or the Denver Police Biased Motivated Crime Unit at 720-913-6458.

Thank you for the continued support and please reach out to us if you have any concerns or questions.

Sincerely,

The Denver Police Department
