

REGIS LIBRARY COMMUNITY SERVICES

Is Regis University's Dayton Memorial Library open to the public?

Regis University is a private institution, but the community is invited to use many of the library's resources and services. Although our top priority is to meet the educational and research needs of Regis students, faculty and staff our collections are open to the public. Videos and DVDs are available to rent as well. The Library has a collection of juvenile literature and a Parent-Child study Room on the 4th floor. Parking is available in Lots 2 or 3 near the Library at 50th and Lowell is $5/day, $3/ evening. Parking is free Saturday & Sunday. For more information about library resources at Regis, visit libguides.regis.edu/community.

Access and Borrowing Privileges

The public is welcome to use the library for research and study. Individuals must be at least 16 years of age to open a library account. To borrow books from the library, guests will need to present photo identification and verification of a Colorado address. Guests may have up to six items checked out at a time.

Computer and Internet Access

Access to many article databases, including more than 5,000 full-text journals, is available at the library. Guests are limited to 90 minutes of online computer use each day. Access to computers is not guaranteed and academic research takes priority over all other online activities. Research Help Desk librarians must login guest users. Guest computer access is available during the hours that the Research Help Desk is staffed.

Wireless internet access is available throughout the library. Please note that you may be required to update your laptop's security settings and software to connect to the network.

Public Printing

Library guests can purchase a print card using the self-service card dispenser next to the designated guest printer on the main floor. Cards costs $1 and guests can load money onto the card in $1, $5, $10, or $20 increments. Each printed or copied page costs 10 cents. Circulation Desk staff can assist with print and copy questions.
