FINANCIAL AID PROCEDURE FOR CHOICE BSN STUDENTS

To apply for financial aid, complete the online Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at: www.fafsa.ed.gov. You will need to apply for a PIN at: www.pin.ed.gov to electronically sign the form. List Regis University, School Code 001363, in the school section of the FAFSA. You will need to complete the 2014-2015 FAFSA to be awarded for summer, fall, and spring terms. The priority deadline for the FAFSA at Regis University is April 15, 2014.

CHOICE BSN students generally meet the cost of the program through a combination of federal, state, and private funding. Grant and loan eligibility is determined by the FAFSA. More information about types of loans, including private alternative loans, is available on the Financial Aid website at www.regis.edu/financialaid under Loan Information.

CHOICE BSN students may also be eligible for funding through the College Opportunity Fund, or COF, by meeting the following eligibility criteria: (1) demonstrate exceptionally high financial need, (2) have graduated from high school or have completed the GED in the state of Colorado, and (3) be a current resident of the state of Colorado as defined by Colorado statutes. If you believe that you meet these eligibility criteria, please file the following forms in order to have your eligibility reviewed by the Financial Aid office: the Colorado Residency Form and the Authorization to Request COF Stipends Form. Please note that these eligibility guidelines are different from state and community colleges because Regis University is a private university. Receiving COF at a previous institution is no guarantee of future eligibility at a different school.

Financial aid is allocated to your student account based on your enrollment plans on a semester to semester basis. Loan funds disburse after the add/drop deadline when you are considered a half-time student. Grant funds disburse after the last add/drop deadline of the semester (5 weeks). The financial aid funds applied to your student account initially pay tuition and fees owed; any excess is refunded to you. You can sign up for direct deposit on WebAdvisor to have any refund deposited to your bank account.

If you are paying cash or partial cash, due dates will correspond with the add/drop deadline for each class. As a rule, tuition is always due by the add/drop deadline for a course.

Visit the Financial Aid website (www.regis.edu/financialaid) for more information regarding the financial aid application processes. And contact the Financial Aid office with any questions. Financial Aid can be reached via email at student-services@regis.edu or by phone at 303-458-4126.

NOTE: If you are planning to take out financial aid for prerequisite coursework, please discuss this with the Financial Aid office before taking out aid from another school. This could impact your eligibility here at Regis University.
